KEY PRIORITIES

SOME OF THE THINGS WE ARE WORKING ON FOR YOU

DID YOU KNOW?

The food, health and consumer products sector is the largest manufacturing workforce, employing over

● 350,000
■ Canadians

with nearly

📍 10,000
locations from coast to coast

Leveraging our deep expertise, extensive networks, and forward-thinking strategies, we are an extension of your team, working together to save you time and money by:

- Advocating for fair retail business practices: We are actively working with federal and provincial governments, as well as industry stakeholders to support Fairness and Accountability in Retail (FAIR) Practices.
- Shaping cost-effective regulations: With privileged insight into Health Canada’s regulations, operations, and consultations with key policy decision makers, we work to reduce regulatory compliance costs and remove barriers to product innovation and the long-term sustainability of the food, health and consumer product sector.
- Leading a national self-care framework: As self-care grows and develops around the world, FHCP is pushing for Canada to lead by example. With our leadership in self-care advocacy and our growing networks of both government and industry supporters, we believe that self-care can make a bigger contribution to healthcare, improving health outcomes and health system sustainability, while making our economy more productive.
- Establishing a sensible and industry-led circular economy: As the first national trade association to endorse the Ellen MacArthur Foundation’s vision for a New Plastics Economy in June 2019 and a founding partner in the Canada Plastics Pact, we are working toward a future of zero plastic waste and a circular economy through innovative and effective measures that support our members’ critical work.

We are an extension of your team, working together to save you time and money.

BENEFITS AT A GLANCE

We know it takes many moving parts to efficiently operate your business. Addressing a problem in one area and overlooking a problem in another puts you no further ahead. That's why we take a holistic, full-service approach to our benefit offerings, which are designed to support many functional areas across your entire business.

who can help support your business goals.

DEDICATED TO YOUR PRIORITIES

We have a team of experts with the knowledge and insider access to help you reach your most ambitious goals.

Here's just a few of the ways we've recently supported our many members.

- Working with federal and provincial ministers to implement a Canadian Grocery Supply Code of Practice to deliver fairness and predictability for manufacturers in Canada.
- Working with all provinces to allow for the sector to lead recycling and other sustainability initiatives and redefining long-standing programs like Blue Box in Ontario.
- Advocating to federal and provincial decisionmakers on the essential role of our industry and products to Canadians and the economy.
- Successfully negotiating enforcement discretion for the implementation of Nutrition Facts labelling until December 2023, and advocating for all food labelling modernization changes to be evidence-based, demonstrate clear cost-benefits and without unnecessary burden for the sector.
- Influencing the Regulatory Framework for Supplemented Foods to ensure that new framework reduces regulatory burden, incentivizes innovation and increases speed to market.

LOOK WHAT OUR MEMBERS ARE SAYING

Your investment in FHCP gives you, and your entire organization, unmatched support and resources. With a retention rate of 98%+ year over year, we're confident your experience will be as rewarding as that of our many longstanding members.

“FHCP has proven to be a strong partner and guide to our business during these rapidly changing times. Their leadership ensures we always have insight and experience at the table to navigate regulatory reform & issue management. Their approach to government relations has given the association a strong voice on the issues that matter most. FHCP also provides opportunities to learn and network with other leaders across the country.”

Ian Ricketts, President, Ocean Brands GP.

“FHCP is a leading voice for our industry addressing key issues and ensures the competitiveness of our retail landscape which is key to the health of our business. FHCP also provides opportunities to share industry initiatives, insights on new technologies, best business practices, and networking opportunities.”

Stephen Fraser, North American Vice President of Retail Sales, Cascade Tissue Group

“FHCP has been a great industry association that has helped us during the change of our business model by advising us on various subjects in sales, logistics and more. It is an association that Bel can rely on to ensure the proper lobbying on major industry topics.”

Cristine Laforest, CEO, Bel Cheese Canada

ABOUT US

FHCP is the leading Canadian voice uniting companies, large and small, that provide access to the food, health, and consumer products Canadians rely on every day.

In 2020, Food & Consumer Products of Canada and Consumer Health Products Canada joined forces, creating a new organization with a common vision and a unified voice. As a full-service association with a long history and a fresh, modern approach, we help our members support the well-being of Canadians and the security of our food supply, while contributing to the expansion of Canada's economy, and the sustainability of our healthcare system and the environment.
